Guest presenters: Peregrine Institute/P. J. Burns and Sarah Bailey re: workshop

proposal for Treatment Court participants.

Sarah Bailey and PJ Burns from Peregrine Institute were present to discuss the workshop proposal. Sarah (previous graduate from the program) has an idea to assist those in the program with their purpose outside of recovery, help them create a vision for themselves, and to also give them the tools to better themselves after the program. Peregrine is offering 2- one-half day workshops for up to 20 people for $2,000.00. The first workshop will be on self-success which will include employment skills, etc. The second workshop will be on creating a vision, goals and communication skills. Those present at the meeting received information on the program. This matter was not voted on and will be discussed by the Board further before any approval decisions will be made.
