

The 2019 Library Foundation Inc. Graphic Novel Character Contest Entry Form

The Library Foundation Inc. (LFI) is hosting the 2019 Graphic Novel Character Contest. All entries will be on display at Campbell County Public Library during March 2019. Entries are due March 1 and winners will be announced March 11.

To Enter: Artists are invited to enter their creation in the appropriate age category:

- Grades 1-6
- Grades 7-12
- 18 and older
- Computer Generated (all ages)

Submit art to Campbell County Public Library or Wright Branch Library no later than 4:30pm March 1, 2019. Entries must be original – they cannot be traced or copied from another artist's work. All entries become property of The Library Foundation Inc.

Guidelines: Draw an original library-themed graphic novel character. It cannot be a copyrighted character. Drawings must be “library appropriate.” Entries that fail to meet this guideline will be automatically disqualified. Bonus points for incorporating the Campbell County Public Library System logo. The library logo is the circle icon next to “Adventure Starts Here” at the top of this form. Use any medium you prefer. Computer generated art must be printed for submission. Entries may be submitted on the back of the entry form or on a separate sheet no larger than 8 1/2” X 14”.

Prizes:

- The overall contest winner will receive a $50 gift card thanks to The Library Foundation Inc. and their creation will be featured as the CCPLS Graphic Novel Character for 2019.
- 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners in each category will also receive prizes.
- All entries will be showcased in an exhibit at CCPL during March 2019.

By signing this form, the artist/parent/guardian of the artist verifies that the entry is an original creation by the artist named below. Further, the artist/parent/guardian transfers all rights, titles and interest in their entry to The Library Foundation Inc. to utilize at their sole discretion. Artists under 18 must have a legal guardian sign below.
