

The 2020 Library Foundation Inc. Graphic Novel Character Contest Entry Form

The Library Foundation Inc. (LFI) is hosting the 2020 Graphic Novel Character Contest. All entries will be on display at Campbell County Public Library during March 2020. Entries are due February 28 and winners will be announced March 10.

To Enter: Artists are invited to enter their creation in the appropriate age category:

- Grades 1-6
- Grades 7-12
- 18 and older
- Computer Generated (all ages)

Submit art to Campbell County Public Library or Wright Branch Library no later than 4:30pm February 28, 2020. Entries must be original – they cannot be traced or copied from another artist's work. All characters become property of The Library Foundation Inc. Original entries returned upon request for artist portfolio use only.

Guidelines: Draw an original library-themed graphic novel character. It cannot be a copyrighted character. Drawings must be "library appropriate." Entries that fail to meet this guideline will be automatically disqualified. Bonus points for incorporating the Campbell County Public Library System logo. The library logo is the circle icon next to "Adventure Starts Here" at the top of this form. Use any medium you prefer. Computer generated art must be printed for submission. Entries may be submitted on the back of the entry form or on a separate sheet no larger than 8 1/2" X 14".

Prizes:

- The overall contest winner will receive a $50 gift card thanks to The Library Foundation Inc. and their creation will be featured as the CCPLS Graphic Novel Character for 2020.
- A People's Choice winner will receive $25 worth of art supplies thanks to The Library Foundation Inc. This will be voted on by the people.
- 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners in each category will also receive prizes.
- All entries will be showcased in an exhibit at CCPL during March 2020.

By signing this form, the artist/parent/guardian of the artist verifies that the entry is an original creation by the artist named below. Further, the artist/parent/guardian transfers all rights, titles and interest in their entry to The Library Foundation Inc. to utilize at their sole discretion. Artists under 18 must have a legal guardian sign below.
