Craig Johnson Returns to CCPL

Campbell County Library is pleased to once again welcome New York Times bestselling Wyoming author Craig Johnson to speak at CCPL on Thursday, December 13 at 6:30pm.

Johnson first visited Campbell County Libraries in 2007 when the first in his Longmire series, The Cold Dish, was featured as the Campbell County's One Book, One Community book. Since then he has become one of the region's favorite authors! This visit will feature Craig talking about his newest book Depth of Winter as well as his annual Christmas story.

Johnson is the author of thirteen full-length novels in the Longmire mystery series, as well as three works of short fiction featuring the beloved sheriff. His acclaimed books have won the Western Writers of America's Spur Award, the Will Rogers Medallion Award for fiction, the Watson Award for a mystery novel with the best sidekick, and the Wyoming Historical Association's Book of the Year award. They have been named best books of the year by Publishers Weekly and Library Journal. Spirit of Steamboat was chosen as the first One Book Wyoming selection. The series has been adapted for television by Warner Bros. as the hit show Longmire, now an original program on Netflix. Johnson lives in Ucross, Wyoming, population twenty-five.

Don't miss your opportunity to get into the Christmas spirit...Longmire style!

Ask a Lawyer

Saturday, December 8
10am-2pm

What do I do if I get pulled over? How do I change custody for my child? Where do I start if I need a will?

Without the guidance of a lawyer, navigating the judicial system or even finding the answer to a seemingly simple question can be both intimidating and confusing.

Attorneys from the firm of Berger and Brown will be available for free 20 minute, one-on-one consultations during this first come, first served event. Attorneys Alex Berger, Sean Brown, and Saige Smith offer personal injury, family law, and bankruptcy assistance and will be able to answer many of your questions and help you understand your options.

Saving Money on Food

Monday, December 10 • 6pm

Do you dread going to the grocery store? Learn food money saving shopping strategies during this month's Money Monday class.

Michelle Pierce, University of Wyoming (UW) Community Development Extension Educator, will help you figure out what type of shopper you are and discuss current grocery store research and how to stretch your dollar.

Don't miss the monthly Money Monday classes to become an informed consumer! Next month: Strategies to Pay Down Debt.

A Christmas Carol: Orson Welles' Classic Radio Show

Thursday, December 20
6:30pm

Campbell County Public Library invites you to enjoy a classic this holiday season.

Join us in the library atrium and listen to the 1938 Mercury Theatre radio performance of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol starring Orson Welles. This event will also feature Christmas carols sung by Light of the World Children's Choir.

CCPL Teens

CCPL Teen Volunteer Scholastic Book Fair: December 3-6
