

Pesticide Profile: Rozol Prairie Dog Bait

Type of Pesticide: Rodenticide

Active Ingredient: Chlorophacinone

Formulation: Chlorophacinone 0.005%, Inert 99.995%

Other Trade Names: None, other formulations for Pocket Gophers

Sites of Applications: Black-tailed Prairie Dog towns on rangeland and non-crop areas

Restricted Use Pesticide: Yes

Signal Word: Caution

Personal Protective Equipment: Shoes, Socks, Gloves

Grazing Restriction: 14 days

Replant Restriction: N/A

Harvest Restriction: N/A

Post-Emergent Restriction: N/A

Other Label Restrictions: Must follow carcass search protocol on label, Must check EPA Bulletins Live each month for application restrictions, only can be applied from October 1-March 15 in Wyoming

Rainfast: N/A

Noxious Controlled: Prairie Dog

Other Information: Usually want to wait at least 1 month for follow up application because of the slower toxicity, Bury any carcasses found above ground at least 18 inches deep